Pastor Lura is on a much deserved vacation this week and will be attending the Lutherans Concerned conference in Minneapolis July 7-11.

She will be back in the office on Tuesday July 13. In case of pastoral emergency please contact Daniel at 214-668-8438 and he will contact the Pastor.

We have a new Administrative Assistant! We will miss Laura's wonderful presence in the church office. As her replacement, Daniel Williams, works to meet everyone in the community please help him by printing your full name in the worship registry.

Don't forget to pick up nonperishable food items to donate to the CCSC food pantry. Donations have been down lately. Remember, we're now bringing the donations forward during the service as an offering.

There are still slots open for anyone interested in private healing prayer (of the emotional variety) on Wednesday nights after Vespers.

Contact Laura B for more info or to schedule an appointment.

WANTED: Shutter Bug - We are in need of a frequent Sunday morning worship attendee with a good digital camera to start taking pictures of our members and regular friends. Contact the office for Details.

The Laramie Project, a moving stage production about the affects of the hate-crime murder of Matthew Shepard being produced by Theatre New West at the Holocaust Museum. On July 10, Matthew's mother Judy Shepard and Mayor Annise Parker will attend and be available to the public. Don't miss it!

Montrose Grace Place is searching for volunteers to help clean up on Thursday nights from 9-10:30. No experience or direct contact with the youth required! Contact Anthony at 832-597-2105 for more information

The worship and Music Committee will meet on Wednesday, July 7 at 5:00 pm.

A Healing Service will be held Wednesday, July 7 at 7:00 pm. Everyone is welcome to this service designed to minister to those in need of healing.

CCSC Back to School Program provides school supplies and uniforms for students in need. Just $45 can get one student started right this fall. Contributions at any level are appreciated.
